

2011 KACP Fall Training Conference & Trade Show

The Kansas Association of Chiefs of Police will hold this year's Fall Training Conference & Trade Show in Hutchinson, Kansas at the Ramada Hotel & Convention Center (1400 N. Lorraine) September 18-21, 2011. Mark this on your calendar now and make plans and arrangements to attend what promises to be a great conference.

The 2011 KACP Fall Conference will provide 16 hours of quality executive/management level law enforcement training and will include an expanded Trade Show exhibiting contemporary and state-of-the-art law enforcement equipment, supplies, programs and products.

Timely Training Topics include "Gaining and Maintaining Supervisory Excellence", "Child Pornography Investigations", Human Trafficking Investigations", "Cell Phone Investigations" and "Emerging Issues in Law Enforcement Technology". The KACP business meeting will offer updates on Association issues, services and programs and will provide opportunities for open presentation and discussion from and among all in attendance.

In addition to the Professional Top Quality Training and the expanded Must-See Trade Show, the Conference will include gifts, door prizes, a pizza party, a breakfast, two luncheons, a barbeque dinner, a large Exhibit Hall reception, a Play Money Auction, coffee break and hospitality refreshments and an available golfing opportunity. Additionally, the networking opportunities with fellow law enforcement leaders as well as vendors can't be beat. There's no other law enforcement conference around where you can get as much bang for your buck.

The Conference Registration is still only $125, payable on-site only. Please bring your conference registration payment with you. Receipts will be provided at Registration. Sorry, credit cards will not be accepted. All activities, except the Golf Outing, are covered by the $125 Registration Fee. KACP members & non-member law enforcement are all welcome. Spouse and KACP Life Member Registration is FREE. See the conference schedule for golfing details.

A special hotel room rate of $77/night has been arranged. Make your Hutchinson Ramada reservation at 800-362-5018 or 620-669-9311 by September 10th and mention KACP to get the special room rate as long as rooms are available. Your early hotel reservation will ensure your room and will help us estimate a head count to better plan meal arrangements, etc.

Plan to kick off the conference on Sunday with the available golfing opportunity and/or the evening Pizza Party with your law enforcement friends. There will be free conference gifts at registration and special door prize opportunities at the Vendor Reception, the Play Money Auction and at the conference conclusion. A firearm is among the numerous door prizes.

A Conference schedule is attached. Please make plans and arrangements to attend this year's KACP Fall conference. Please contact KACP Director Doyle King with any questions or comments at 316-733-7300 or kacp@cox.net.
